NOUNS

Nouns are naming words. They name objects, things, people, creatures, buildings, etc. Here are some of the nouns used in 'Who's Your Mummy?' by R.L. Stine.

1. Circle the noun in each phrase.

eyes glowing bright red

too many bats to slap
away

both of my hands

the flap of wings

their claws scratched

swinging his arms wildly

an evil-looking man

clearly in the moonlight

2. Circle the nouns below.

lost	brilliant	Egypt	mouth	big	tomb
Peter	quickly	muttered	Annie	mummy	dry
doors	white	after	throat	scared	jumping
tiny	excited	Jonathan	stained	stagger	house
huge	floor	wrapping	clearly	window	bats

3. Circle the nouns in the sentences below (there are more than one in each sentence)

The evil-looking man raised his face to my window.

The bats tore at his coat.

Didn't Jonathan hear the man's screams?

Sonja came trotting around the corner.

NOUNS

Nouns are naming words.

Concrete nouns are things that you can experience through your five senses.

See how many you can list. You have one example for each sense.

See	Smell	Taste	Touch	Hear
trees	gas	lemonade	carpet	screams

See if you can make a sentence with all three of these nouns in them. Write the sentence in your book.
